

FREE career support for people on furlough

If you have been placed on furlough and are feeling uncertain about your career Renaisi's Employment and Skills Advisors are here to listen and provide support.

If you want to speak to someone about your options, our Advisors can help you with anything related to your career such as:

- Exploring your career options
- Discovering your skills and strengths
- Finding courses and other career development opportunities
- Tips on updating your CV and looking for work

We can also provide information about additional sources of support available to you locally for other practical matters.
